

Charlotte Family Health Center welcomes
Patrick Kearney, MS, PA-C

Patrick is an experienced provider of primary care for adults and older children. He was born and raised in Ireland and completed his pre-med training at University College in Dublin. He went on to study at the British School of Osteopathy in London, England, during which time he became a Clinical Services Provider at Saint Martins in the Field. After obtaining his BS, Patrick moved to the U.S. and received a Masters degree of Health Science from Drexel University in 2005.

He met his wife while in Philadelphia and moved to Vermont in 2006 so his two children would be near their grandparents. Mr. Kearney has worked at Evergreen Family Health since 2011 and will be transitioning to Charlotte Family Health Center which is closer to his home in Shelburne. Initially Patrick will see patients on Mondays and Wednesdays in Charlotte and Tuesdays and Thursdays at Evergreen in Williston. Eventually, he will only see patients in Charlotte Monday through Thursday.
